

MATTHEW G. BEVIN
GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE ORDER

2019-1093

December 4, 2019

Secretary of State
Frankfort
Kentucky

PARDON

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

WHEREAS, John Weddington Scott of Lexington, Kentucky was convicted in Boone County Circuit Court in 2006 of possession of controlled substance and paraphernalia, and in Fayette County Circuit Court in 2006 of possession of controlled substance; and

WHEREAS, John W. Scott battled addiction and its criminal consequences for many years. He has since turned his life around and has devoted it to serving others. Drawing upon his personal experience as a military veteran, a recovering addict and a retuning citizen, he now provides support, counseling and encouragement to other struggling veterans; and

WHEREAS, it is my privilege to grant Mr. Scott the full and unconditional pardon that he has requested. I am confident that he will continue to use his new-found purpose to serve others and to be the man he was created to be:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Matthew G. Bevin, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, in consideration of the foregoing, and by the virtue of the authority vested in me by Sections 77, 145, and 150 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby unconditionally pardon John Weddington Scott and return to him all rights and privileges of a citizen of this Commonwealth.

Done at the Capitol, in the City of Frankfort, this 4th day of December, in the year of our Lord Two Thousand and Nineteen and in the year of the Commonwealth the Two Hundred Twenty Eighth.

MATTHEW G. BEVIN, Governor

Commonwealth of Kentucky
